Independent Career

University of Cambridge (Department of Chemistry), UK

Professor of Energy & Sustainability	from 2017
Director of Christian Doppler Laboratory for Sustainable SynGas Chemistry	since 2012
Fellow of St. John's College	since 2011
University Reader in Energy & Sustainability	2015–17
University Lecturer in Energy, Materials & Sustainability	2010–15
EPSRC Career Acceleration Fellow (from 2009–2010 at The University of Manchester)	2009–15

Postdoctoral Positions

University of Oxford (Inorganic Chemistry Laboratory), UK	2008–09
BBSRC Research Associate; advisor: Prof Fraser A. Armstrong FRS
College Lecturer in Inorganic Chemistry at St. John's College
Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT, Department of Chemistry), USA	2005–07
Erwin Schrödinger Fellow; advisor: Prof Stephen J. Lippard

Education and Qualifications

University of Vienna (Department of Chemistry), Austria
Habilitation (professorial qualification) in Inorganic Chemistry	2010
Title: ' Bio-inspired generation of sustainable energy carriers '
PhD degree in Bioinorganic Chemistry	2002–05
Advisor: Prof B. K. Keppler
Title: ' Electron transfer activated ruthenium anticancer drugs '
(including 1 year research at Instituto Superior Técnico , Lisbon, Portugal)
Diploma in Chemistry	1998–2002
(including 5 months Erasmus exchange at Universidade Nova de Lisboa , Portugal)

Honours & Awards

• Japan Society of Coordination Chemistry International Award for Creative Work	2017
• European Research Council Consolidator Grant	2016
• Harrison-Meldola Memorial Prize by Royal Society of Chemistry	2014
• Grammaticakis-Neumann Prize by Swiss Chemical Society	2014
• Young Investigator Award by Royal Society of Chemistry Bioinorganic Group	2014
• Rising Stars Lectureship at International Conference on Coordination Chemistry, Singapore	2014
• ' Science Award ' by State of Upper Austria	2011
• Anton-Paar Science Award by Austrian Chemical Society	2009
• Career Acceleration Fellowship & Research Leaders Award by EPSRC, UK	2009&12
• Erwin Schrödinger Fellowship awarded by Austrian Science Foundation	2005
• Austrian Honorary Award for 'academic excellence' by Austrian Ministry of Science	2003
• Multiple Awards for Academic Excellence , University of Vienna, Austria	1999–2004

Service to Community & Membership in Scientific Societies

• Director of UK Solar Fuels Network	since 2017
• Co-director EPSRC Doctoral Training Centre, Sustainable & Functional Nano, Cambridge	since 2014
• Fellow of the Royal Society of Chemistry (FRSC; member from 2008–2014)	since 2014
• Member of the American Chemical Society	since 2006
• Member of the Austrian Chemical Society	since 2002
