

The Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Innovative Training Network (Call: H2020-MSCA-ITN-2019) “European network for the training of the next generation of scientists in solar chemicals for a sustainable Europe by hybrid molecule/semiconductor devices” (SOLAR2CHEM) invites applications for 15 early-stage researcher (ESR) positions, available with a starting date in the period 1st August –1st October 2020 for a period of three years. The network unites 12 beneficiaries and 8 partner organisations from both the academic and industrial sectors from 9 countries (Ireland, United Kingdom, Denmark, Germany, Spain, Switzerland, Hungary, Finland and Belgium). More information about the network can be found at <http://solar2chem.eu/>.

Deadline for on-line application: 31st December 2019 (earlier deadlines might apply for some beneficiaries).

Information on the recruitment process at <https://solar2chem.eu/recruitment/>